Wayne State University Undergraduate Alumni Scholarship Application 2009-10 Academic Year

The 2009-10 Wayne State University Undergraduate Alumni Scholarship is available to WSU graduates, undergraduates or their spouse who wish to pursue a new undergraduate degree from the University and who have been involuntarily separated from their employment within the last six months from the date of this application or have a spouse who has lost his or her job within the last six months. Returning alumnus must be pursuing a second undergraduate degree and/or spouse may be pursuing a first or second undergraduate degree.

To be eligible for the Scholarship, the applicant must:

- provide a completed, signed and dated application;
- provide signed certification from the alumnus' previous employer or that of the spouse, indicating that the relevant person was separated from employment and the date of the separation. The certification must be on the employer's letterhead stationery and include contact information. We suggest that the certification come from the Human Resource Office of the former employer.
- provide proof of marital status (i.e. copy of marriage license) if spouse is the one who lost their job or is returning to school.
- not receive another tuition paying award concurrent with the WSU Undergraduate Alumni Scholarship.
- Provide notification to the Office of Student Financial Aid immediately upon receiving gainful employment

The Scholarship award:

- will provide payment for 50% of the tuition (credit) assessment up to two undergraduate-level courses;
- does not provide payment for any fees (registration, omnibus, Fitness Center, SEVIS, late registration, course material, late payment, etc.)
- will be applied to Fall 2009 and Winter 2010 if the award recipient is a Fall 2009 admit or only to the Winter 2010 semester if the applicant is admitted for Winter 2010;
- will not pay for audited credits;
- is tuition-restricted, i.e. will be applied only to the applicable semester's tuition assessment;
- is not restricted to Michigan residents or U.S. citizens;
